INTRODUCTION

We were honored to gather at Kanakakunnu Nishagandhi Auditorium to observe the international day against drug abuse and illicit Trafficking – a day marked globally on June 26th each year. The participation of 50 NSS volunteers from our institution. Our volunteers played an active role in this programs, demonstrating the true spirit of service and social responsibility

CULTURAL PROGRAMS

On the occasion of international day against drug abuse and illicit Trafficking, a series of cultural programs were held at kanakunu, featuring captivating performances such as: Sufi dance, skits, mime etc. A recovered addict shared his experience, saying that overcoming drug abuse was the toughest journey of his life, but it gives him a second chance to live with dignity.

These events aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse while promoting messages of hope, recovery, and social responsibility. The performances not only entertained the audience but also conveyed powerful messages about the importance of leading a drug-free life, making the day both meaningful and impactful.

INAUGURATION

The International Anti-Drug Day program held at Kanakakunnu Nishagandhi Auditorium on 26 June was formally inaugurated by the honourable Chief Minister of Kerala, Shri Pinarayi Vijayan at 3:00 pm.

Minister emphasized the urgent need to spread awareness about the harmful effects of drug addiction, particularly among the youth.

#CONCLUSION

Let us remember :Drug addiction is not just a personal issue-it's a social challenge that affects families,communities,and the future of our youth.

Together,lets say: No to drugs, yes to life!

As an NSS volunteer, observing International Day against drug abuse and illicit trafficking has deepened my understanding of the devastating impact drugs have in individuals,families,and society.NSS will continue to organize such activities to raise awareness and promote a drugfree healthy society
