1. Inaugural function

The programme began with a prayer, followed by several inaugural events during which the Chief Guest and other dignitaries were invited onto the stage.

2. Programmes

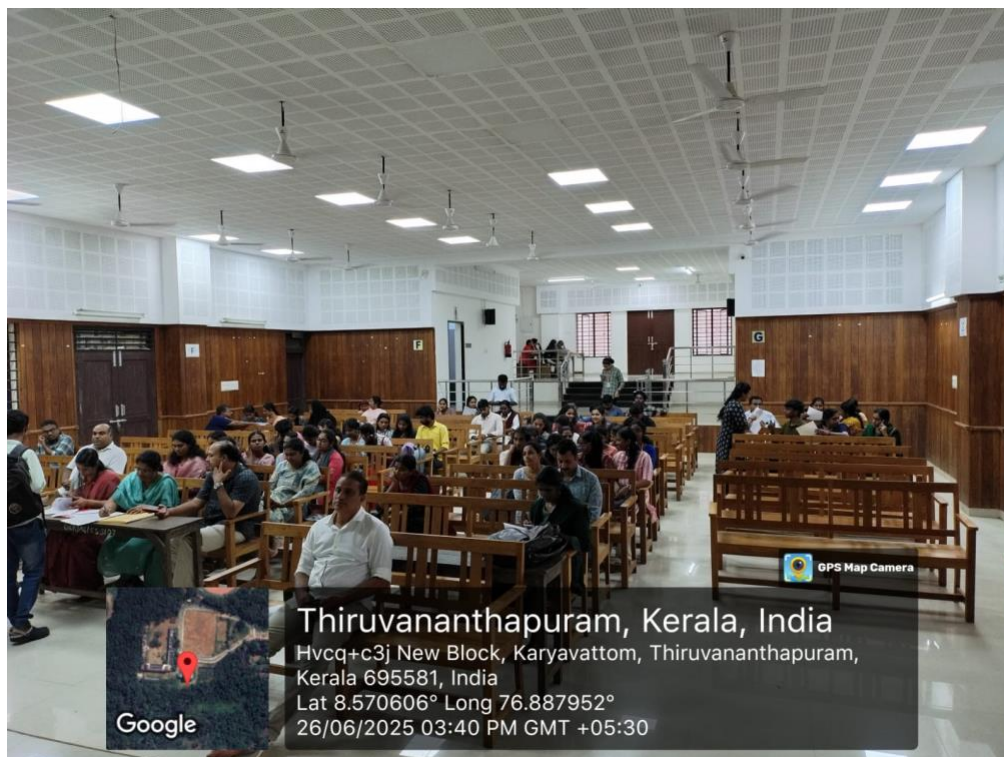

During the inaugural function held at Kanakakunnu, several cultural programmes were prepared to engage and encourage the audience. Various colleges participated by presenting performances that conveyed the message of "Say No to Drugs." The message was effectively delivered through dance, dramas, mimes, and other art forms.

3. Inaguration

The programme was inaugurated by our Honourable Chief Minister of Kerala, who delivered a message to the audience. Other guests also spoke for a few minutes as part of the inaugural function.

4.Conclusion

The programme was organized in support of the “Say No to Drugs” campaign. It delivered several powerful messages aimed at the younger generation. The use of drugs causes serious harm to society, so it is important to reduce drug consumption and prevent its influence on youth. The goal is to eliminate the presence of drugs in our communities and protect future generations. These were the main themes of the programme. We celebrated the 5th anniversary of the “Say No to Drugs” initiative, and the event concluded at 5 PM. And all the programmes were shown through live to the college students
